UK points-based immigration system: Employer Partner Pack

HM Government

The way you hire from the EU has changed

Swipe up to find out more

Thank you for using the June 2021 edition of our Employer Partner pack.

Free movement ended on 31 December and the UK has introduced a points-based immigration system. The new system treats EU and non-EU citizens equally and transforms the way in which all migrants come to the UK to work. Anyone coming to the UK to work will need to apply for permission in advance except Irish citizens or EU citizens eligible for status under the EU Settlement Scheme.

To support you in providing essential guidance about the new points-based system to employers and your stakeholders, we have developed a suite of digital and print assets with information to help employers prepare.

This pack outlines our key messages and provides communication products for use on channels including social media, email updates and e-newsletters. Please do feel free to share this pack and the assets among your wider partners.

Your help and support in communicating this essential guidance is much appreciated. We hope this pack makes it as easy as possible to share updates with your audience and stakeholders through your range of digital channels.

If you have any questions or feedback, please contact us at: PBISEmployerComms@homeoffice.gov.uk

Employers now need to be a licensed sponsor

Content

What's new:

- Right to work employer factsheet
- Right to work checklist
- Digital immigration status guide
- Updated Association of Labour Providers/ Home Office labour supply handbook

Also in this pack:

- Link to the PBS Employer GOV.UK page
- Podcast: Business and the future of immigration in 2021
- Frontier workers guide
- Infographic: Overview of sponsorship process for employers

Key messages

- The way you hire from the EU has changed. You must be a licensed sponsor to hire eligible employees from outside the UK.
- Free movement has ended, and the points-based immigration system has salary and language requirements that change the way you hire from the EU.
- The system treats EU and non-EU citizens equally and transforms the way in which employers recruit from outside the UK.
- You need a sponsor licence to hire most eligible employees from outside the UK. This does not apply to Irish citizens.
- Some immigration routes, such as Global Talent, are 'unsponsored'. You don't need a licence to hire employees with an unsponsored visa.
- From 1 July 2021, employers will no longer be able to accept EU, EEA or Swiss passports or ID cards as valid proof of right-to-work, except for Irish citizens.

The UK's points-based immigration system: Right to Work: Employer factsheet

 Home Office

Right to Work:
Employer Factsheet

The Home Office has published updates to the Employer's Guide to Right to Work Checks on GOV.UK to support employers to undertake right to work checks for EEA and Swiss citizens (EEA) from 1 January 2021 to 30 June 2021.

Key lines

- Right to Work checks for EEA and Swiss citizens will not change until after 30 June 2021. As a transition measure, employers can continue to accept the passports and national identity cards of EU citizens as evidence of their right to work up until 30 June 2021.
- Employers are not expected to differentiate between EEA citizens who arrive before the end of the transition period (31 December 2020) and those arriving after in the grace period from 1 January to 30 June 2021.
- Employers must not discriminate against EEA citizens who choose to evidence their right to work using their passport or national identity card, and neither can you insist EEA citizens use the online service.
- If an individual has not applied to the EU Settlement Scheme by 30 June 2021 or does not hold any other form of leave, they will be in the UK without lawful status. Therefore, they will not have a right to work from that date and may be liable to enforcement action.
- Where the right to work check has been carried out in accordance with the relevant secondary legislation, employers will have established a continuous statutory excuse and a legal defence against liability for a civil penalty in the event that the employee does not have the right to work.
- Employers will maintain a continuous statutory excuse against a civil penalty if the initial checks were undertaken as set out in our guidance.
- New guidance on how to conduct right to work checks on EEA citizens after 30 June 2021 will be provided in advance of this date.
- Queries about the Right to Work Scheme can be sent to:
  - RighttoRentandRighttoWork@homeoffice.gov.uk

Additional information

- EEA citizens with status under the EU Settlement Scheme or the new points-based immigration system may choose to use the Home Office online service to evidence their right to work.
- The Immigration and Social Security Co-ordination (EU Withdrawal) Act 2020 ends free movement between the EU and the UK on 31 December 2020 (11pm). For those EEA citizens who are lawfully resident in the UK by virtue of free movement law prior to the end of the transition period (31 December 2020),

The UK's points-based immigration system: Employers guide to becoming a licensed sponsor of skilled migrant workers

HM Government

Employers guide to becoming a licensed sponsor of skilled migrant workers

- 1. Check your organisation is eligible
  - Check the people you want to hire are eligible to come to the UK under the new points-based immigration system
  - Ensure you are able to provide the necessary supporting documents for your sponsor licence application, e.g. details of your organisation and intended jobs you wish to fill
  - To get a licence, you cannot have unspent criminal convictions for immigration offences or certain other crimes, such as fraud or money laundering
- 2. Ensure your organisation can manage its licence
  - You need to appoint people within your organisation to manage the sponsorship process when you apply
  - They will be responsible for ensuring your organisation remains compliant within the requirements of the licence
  - You will need to keep record of your staff that you sponsor for reporting to UKVI (UK Visas and Immigration)
- 3. Apply - allow 8 weeks
  - Apply online and pay the fee
  - The fee is dependent on the type of licence(s) you are applying for and the type and size of your organisation. It will either be £536 or £1,476
  - Send your supporting documents to UKVI
  - Confirm how many staff you plan to recruit through the sponsorship system for the current financial year
  - Each staff member sponsored costs £21 or £199, in addition to the usual visa application fees

✓ If successful, your licence will be valid for 4 years
- 4. Sponsor a worker
  - Once you have selected a candidate, they must make a visa application to work in the UK
  - You must first endorse your prospective employee's visa through your sponsor licence account by requesting then issuing an electronic 'certificate of sponsorship'
  - Pay the Immigration Skills Charge. This is £1,000 for the first year of work in the UK plus £500 for each additional 6 months, or £364 and £182 respectively for small businesses or charities
  - The employee must then submit a visa application under the same category as your licence

✓ If the prospective employee's visa application is granted, they may travel to the UK and start working
