Appendix 1 TR recommendations and conclusions

Recommendation	Action
1. The functions of the GLA are still necessary and should continue	No action
2. The GLA and Defra should ensure that the scope of the GLA is clearly publicised through appropriate mechanisms and that any changes to the regulations for which it is responsible should be clearly communicated to stakeholders	Completed by Defra exclusion regulations. Action required: need to consider consolidating web text and GLA Brief material into the A-Z
3. Defra will work with the Home Office and other Departments to consider the sponsorship of the GLA alongside the development of the Modern Slavery Bill	Completed
4. The GLA should continue to implement the recommendations from the Red Tape Challenge and continue to identify further opportunities for reducing financial and administrative burdens on compliant businesses.	Ongoing (work on ER, PR changes live on 1/6/14, risk based AI implemented, longer licences subject to (a) fee review and (b) LAWS functionality)
5. The GLA should continue to explore opportunities for securing alternative funding and develop a plan for investigating and implementing these opportunities over the next 12 months	Ongoing (on migration plan) discussions continuing to develop commercial trading fund status for training to supply chains on forced labour
6. The GLA remains the right body for delivering its functions of licensing and enforcement and should remain an NDPB.	No action required
7. The documents governing the relationship between GLA and Defra should be reviewed and updated by 31 March 2014	Ongoing – migration plan: SLA for enforcement to be transferred to HO, other agreements to similarly feature on the migration plan
8. Following Defra bringing forward secondary legislation to reform the size and structure of the GLA Board, the GLA should develop and agree proposals for a future Board structure which significantly reduces the size of membership; adheres with Cabinet Office principles of good practice; and follows appointment processes that are OCPA compliant	Ongoing: HO sponsor unit responsibility re statutory instrument Board to consider structure, and sub-groups
9. The GLA should develop mechanisms for effective communication and engagement with stakeholders that feed in to the Board decision-making considerations.	Ongoing - Dependant on Board structure, and decisions on liaison committees, developing from Board paper: 41/10 Board – action on 41/10 was: “Responses are sought by 30 April 2014. The draft paper to the new Board will be discussed at the next GLA Board meeting in 16/07/14 – 1 post-Board view received.

10. The governance mechanisms should be further developed taking in to account stakeholder views and be sufficiently flexible to allow for any necessary adaptations in future.	See recommendation 9
