

Oral Parliamentary Question – steps taken to reduce modern slavery

Date: 29 October 2018

Ref: 907296

Asked by:

James Cartlidge (South Suffolk)

Question:

To ask Her Majesty's Government what steps the Government are taking to reduce modern slavery

Response:

The Government are tackling the abhorrent crime of modern slavery both at home and overseas. We have strengthened the law enforcement response and introduced new requirements for businesses to report on slavery in their supply chains and are transforming the support we provide to victims. Internationally, we continue to work to stop modern slavery wherever it occurs.
