Section E – Part 1.

Named Individuals or Additional Job Titles

For applications with a turnover less than £5 million a year, we require details of those individuals employed by your business who are authorised to negotiate with labour users and supply workers within the regulated sector. You must include the names of directors / partners already supplied who have the authority to undertake this activity. You do not need to complete this section if your business does not have employees who fulfil this role (i.e. it is only you).

If you are applying to use workers for gathering shellfish you must complete this section. We require the details of anyone who is authorised to act on your behalf (e.g. as a supervisor, intermediary).

For applications for the agriculture, horticulture and food processing and packaging sectors, if your turnover is greater than £5 million, you may opt to provide the job titles (e.g. recruitment consultant) for your staff who are authorised to negotiate the supply of workers. This section does not apply for applications for the shellfish gathering sector. You will need to provide the job title you use and the number of people currently employed within this capacity.
